PYCON THAILAND

Pycon is a two day conference about the programming language Python. In it's second year, Pycon is an international annual event driven by the members of the Python Community in Bangkok on a nonprofit basis dedicated to advancing and promoting Python.

PyCons are gatherings for the community using and developing the open-source Python programming language. Its mission is to grow the international community of Python programmers in Thailand , Asia and around the world.

WHY SPONSOR PYCON?

THE PEOPLE

Pycon attracts people from all over the world. Pycon is one of the largest open source language developer conference in Thailand. In Pycon 2018, 83% attendees are from Thailand and 17% of the international attendees are well represented by South-east Asian countries. Many people traveled from the USA and all over Europe to attend too. This is because Thailand is also a well-known for it's good food, culture and climate. Attendees are entrepreneurs, developers, educators, engineers and young aspiring Python users. What they all have in common is a passion for the programming language, Python. They come to discover, meet people, learn stuff, have fun, and be inspired.

PyCon Thailand 2018 is being organised through the Thai Programmers Association, a registered charity (No. 0-9930-00353-42-1)

THE FORMAT

The most important thing about Pycon is the people. It's the opportunity to meet, talk and learn from one another and to find inspiration and motivation. This is supported by the format of alternating 30-45 minute talks with 5 breaks per day. The attendees have plenty of time for discussion with the speakers and other attendees after each presentation.

As a sponsor you will have lots of opportunities to interact with the attendees. Find passionate individuals to hire. Talk to curious developers about your technology or service. Find out what creative entrepreneurs are working on. The conference is 3 tracks with more than 40 talks, workshops and lightning talks spread over 2 days.

VENUE

Spanning over 20,000m², True Digital Park is set to be Thailand's and Southeast Asia's largest startup destination and the place to be for urbanites in the digital era.

Located in the heart of Bangkok's emerging innovation District on Sukhumvit Road, it is easily accessible for all commuters via BTS sky train at Punnawithi BTS station.

It is also home to cutting-edge Tech Labs, Open Labs, Makerspace, Experience Centers, Training Centers, Business Center and Academies

Pycon 2019 is proud to be one of the pioneering events hosted here.
